Island Health Performance Measures Home Care Professional Services

Year to Date Performance	78%		Performance Assessment		Yellow
Island Health Target	Greater than or equal to 80%		Performance is outside acceptable range; Monitor and take action as appropriate.
What do we measure and why?			How are we doing?
Island Health's home care services provide care for patients after they leave hospital and ongoing			Island Health is not meeting the target.
support and healthcare to clients to enable them to			What actions are we taking?
remain independent and in their homes for as long			 Providing additional clinical education to as possible. There are many types of home care			Community Health Services staff to improve services available.			responsiveness and documentation.
			• Target a portion of the additional resources in
The Home Care Professional Services measure			2019/20 to clients who require rapid response reflects the percentage of home care clients who are			for hospital	for hospital avoidance or early discharge.

• Improving communications, information sharing, and working relationships with the client's primary care providers (Family Doctors, Nurse Practitioners) and health team.

seen by home care nurses, or rehabilitation or case management professionals (after they have been assessed, prioritized and referred to the service), response times vary based on the urgency of the Island Health's target for 2019/20 is to meet requiring professional home care services.

requiring action and active monitoring.

client's needs.

What is the target?

within benchmark response times. The benchmark benchmark response times for at least 80% of clients

Percentages below 70% will be categorized as red,

Published: June 2020 https://www.islandhealth.ca/about-us/accountability/performance-measures